GREYSTEEL PROMOTES EVERETT WONG TO DIRECTOR

April 4, 2019, Los Angeles, CA – Greysteel, a national commercial real estate investment services firm, announced the promotion of Everett Wong to Director. Mr. Wong’s most recent title was Senior Investment Associate.

Mr. Wong co-leads the Los Angeles investment sales and structured finance practice providing services to our clients throughout Southern California. He is responsible for start-to-finish deal execution and arranging institutional, middle market, and private client multifamily transactions.

In addition to his work at Greysteel, Everett is actively involved with Foster Nation, a non-profit organization that supports and empowers foster youth aging out of the foster system to become the nation’s future leaders. He serves on their Young Leaders Collective board, a diverse group of entrepreneurs, professionals, and former foster youth that believe everyone deserves equal access to success.

“Everett has a proven track record as one of the top multifamily brokers in the Mid-City area of Los Angeles,” said Ari Firoozabadi, Greysteel President & CEO. “As a leader in our LA office, Everett will be instrumental in expanding our market presence throughout the West Coast U.S.”

Mr. Wong graduated from the University of Michigan where he received his Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science.
