GREYSTEEL PROMOTES DANIEL HARTNETT TO DIRECTOR

May 8, 2019, Dallas, TX – Greysteel, a national commercial real estate investment services firm, announced the promotion of Daniel Hartnett to Director. Mr. Hartnett’s most recent title was Senior Finance Associate.

Mr. Hartnett is based out of the Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas offices and co-leads the National Debt and Structured Finance and JV Equity Groups. He specializes in structured debt, mezzanine, and joint venture equity placement for multifamily, hospitality, commercial, retail, and self-storage properties. Daniel conducts financial analysis for acquisition, refinance, and other special situation workout loans and is responsible for sourcing and executing corporate and project-related debt solutions for private and middle market clients through numerous relationships with banks, life insurance companies, and CMBS conduit lenders.

“We are pleased to recognize Daniel and his accomplishments. He has connected extremely well with the lending community since joining the Greysteel team,” said Greysteel Senior Managing Director, Doug Banerjee. “He has become nationally known in the industry as a creative solution maker when facing financing challenges.”

Mr. Hartnett earned his B.S. in Business Management and Political Science from the Ohio University.
