GREYSTEEL PROMOTES DALLAS MULTIFAMILY PROFESSIONAL JACK STONE TO SENIOR DIRECTOR

July 14, 2021, Dallas, Tx. – Greysteel, a national commercial real estate investment services firm, announced the promotion of Jack Stone to Senior Director. Mr. Stone's most recent title was Director.

Mr. Stone is a critical component of the Dallas-based Multifamily Investment Sales Practice, providing services to our multifamily clients throughout the Dallas, Fort-Worth and El Paso regions. Mr. Stone also co-manages the Dallas-based Student Housing Investment Sales team that is responsible for arranging sales and financing for a range of Student Housing assets across the country.

Since joining Greysteel in mid-2018, Mr. Stone has been instrumental in the growth of the Multifamily & Student Housing Practices and has transacted an impressive $200+ million in total sales volume.

“Jack has been a tremendous asset to the team since joining in 2018 and he's proving to be an even better leader as a co-lead of the National Student Housing practice,” said Greysteel Senior Managing Director, Doug Banerjee. “I'm excited to see Jack's growth for another three years as the sky truly is the limit for him.”

Mr. Stone received his B.S. & JD from The University of Texas, Austin and holds a committee membership with the Young Texans Against Cancer. He volunteers his time with area organizations such as RedRover, which provides temporary emergency sheltering, resources, financial assistance and emotional support when animals and people are in crisis.
